Thanks to Wilmington Rotary for this reminder of Rotary's pathway to success.

Your club wants to install a latrine block at a school or provide computers and books for classrooms. Great, but why? Rotary's "building blocks to impact" approach to project design could help you formulate the answer. It's a way to visualize your project strategy — the path to your goal, also known as your theory of change.

Thank You!

Thank you Quality Inn for more than 23 years of partnering with Bradley-Bourbonnais Rotary

So many events have been held at 800 North Kinzie. Over 830 BBRotary weekly meetings, headquarters for the Group Study Exchange Initiative, Countless Four-Way Test Dinners and Multi-Chapter Rotary Installation Banquets. As we continue with our Four-Way Test program and Rotary Installation Banquets, I'm sure there will be opportunities to visit again.

Thanks to Julia, Marcia and Jim Czerwionka and Frank and Jean Koehler for the take-down of this year's tree.

Los Mochis Rotarians served a New Year's chicken dinner to 110 families in the Village.
