ROTARY AROUND THE WORLD

The Rotary Club of Bradley-Bourbonnais in Illinois has found jigsaw puzzles featuring scenes from the community to be a fitting fundraiser. In September, the club unveiled its third annual installment, featuring a bucolic scene of an 1850s barn. The club runs a photo contest each June to find images for the puzzles, offering a $100 prize. It credits the photographer by name and promotes a link to the winner's website. "We're celebrating what our community has to offer," says Julia Mullikin. "People are looking forward to getting each year's puzzle." Club members staff tables at markets and enlist merchants and museums to offer the puzzles, which sell for $30. "We use just about every portion of the box to promote our Rotary club," says Frank Koehler. Proceeds support scholarships, student recognition, and ShelterBox.

Thanks to BBRotarians who stopped by to help out at the BTPD Senior's Luncheon
